

Penny, Patti Blackledge, twin Queens.

TWINS HONORED

Navy Picks 'Queen' For Cotton Bowl

Twin sisters from Houston—Lamar High School, were born in Lamar High School, were born in Penny and Patti Blackledge—have Washington, D.C., in 1936 while been named honor guests for the their father was on active duty New Year's Day Cotton Bowl with the Navy. classic between Rice and Navy.

Traditionally, the host Southwest Conference names the Cotton Bowl Queen. And slender Penny Blackledge, a senior English major at Rice, was selected queen.

United States Naval Academy officials Saturday invited Patti, also a Rice senior, to be Miss Navy, its official representative to the Queen's Court of Princesses.

The twins' father is a Naval Academy graduate himself. He is Capt. A. D. Blackledge, USN, (Ret.), of Houston, a member of Annapolis' Class of 1922.

The girls, graduates of Houston's